"Time Marches On"

At the beginning of the school year, time seemed to fly. As the year progressed, the passing of time slowed noticeably, and the druggery of final projects and examinations drew gradually nearer. Suddenly, the year was almost over--- Would it ever end?--- And time seemed hardly to pass at all. But inevitably the school year ended, and we were free! Another year is gone, and "time marches on"

SPECIAL ELECTIVE COURSES

Classes in library training are offered to interested students. Under the leadership of the school librarian, the students learn library procedure.

Drivers' Training offers students a chance to learn to drive a car as well as to acquire some knowledge of the mechanics of a car. Sophomores are given preference in this class; however, others students may also enroll.

All girls may elect to study home economics for three years. In this department class members study sewing, cooking, and general home-making.

The music department offers students instrumental and vocal training. They may participate in orchestra, band, and chorus. Music appreciation is a new course this year.

Art is available to all students for three years of study. In addition to studying art appreciation, students work in all mediums of art. Commercial art is also offered.

ENGLISH

The English department attempts to improve the art of communication by stressing both correct oral and written work. Another objective of the department is to cultivate a taste for good literature by introducing the great literature of various countries. Improving speed and comprehension of reading and developing better listening skills are also goals of the department.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

With more rapid means of communication and travel, the world is becoming smaller and smaller. It becomes more imperative with the passing years that Americans learn to master a foreign language and learn of the culture of foreign speaking peoples. The Ashland school system with classes available for three years of study of French and seven years of Spanish, offers its students the opportunity to learn these languages well.

SOCIAL STUDIES

The basic purpose of social studies is to develop better citizens through an understanding of and appreciation for the American democratic way of life. The required subjects in the social studies department are U.S. History for juniors and Modern Problems for the seniors. World History is an elective subject open to all students.

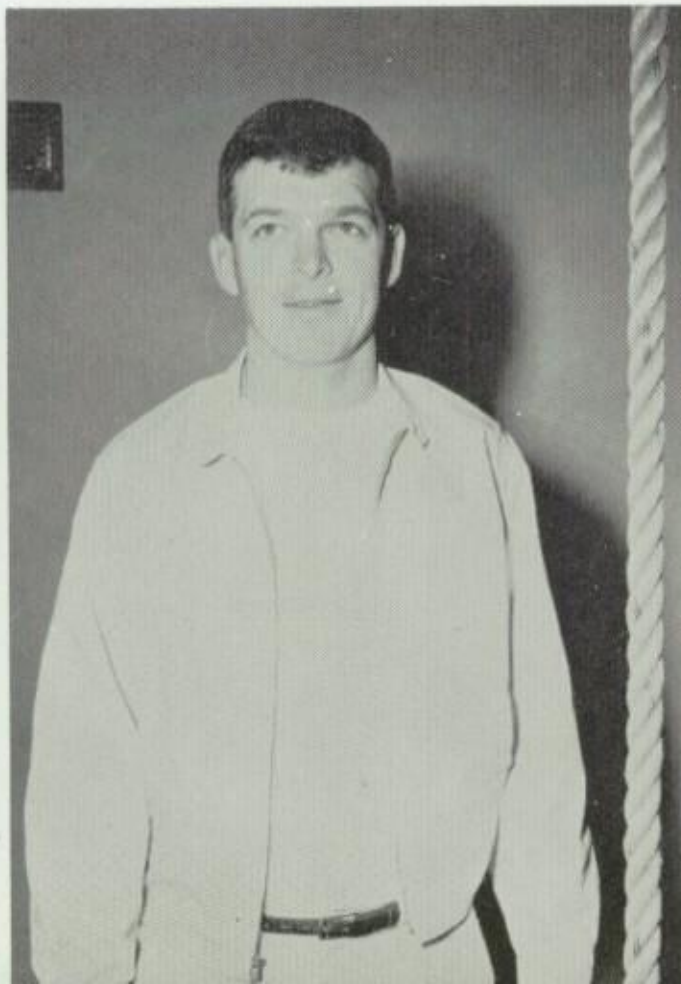

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Physical education develops muscle coordination and physical fitness in students. For sophomores, physical education is a required subject. Upperclassmen may also enroll in these courses for a third or fourth year. Activities for students in this department are football, basketball, baseball, badminton, volleyball, tumbling, tennis, gymnastics, archery, bowling, track and field events, and ping-pong.

MATHEMATICS

The mathematics department of this school attempts: (1) to develop an appreciation and awareness of the rapid growth in ideas and in importance of mathematics in our society; (2) to teach the concepts and skills necessary for further study in mathematics or in fields requiring mathematics; (3) to provide all students with sufficient mathematical understanding and skills to meet their needs as producers and consumers. Students elect math courses from the following: Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, Plane and Solid, Trigonometry and Analysis, Basic Math, Grades 10, 11, and 12, and Business Math.

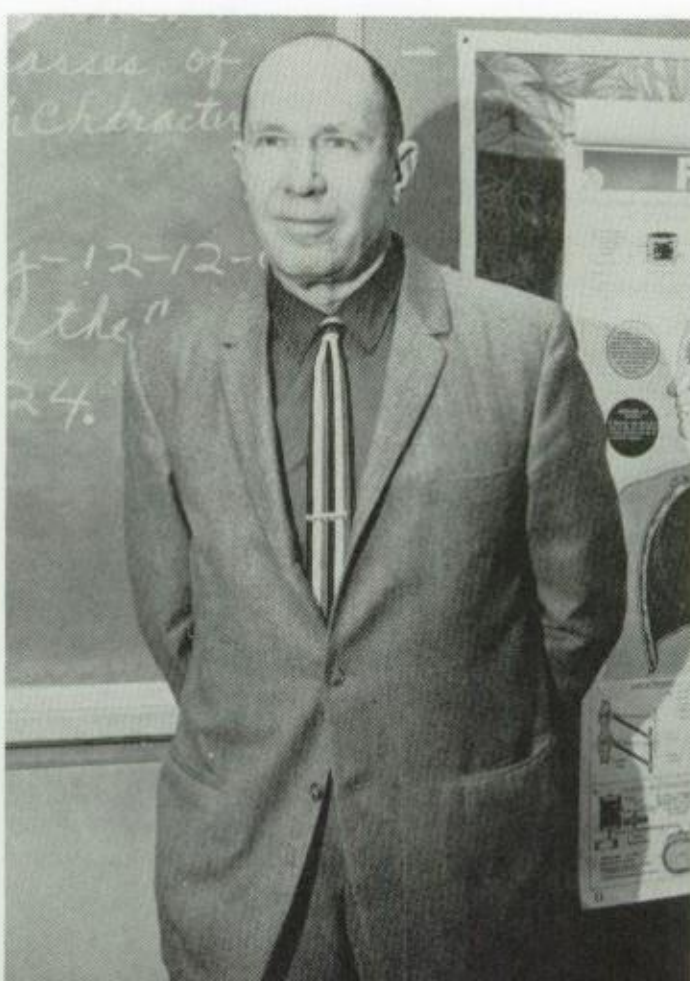

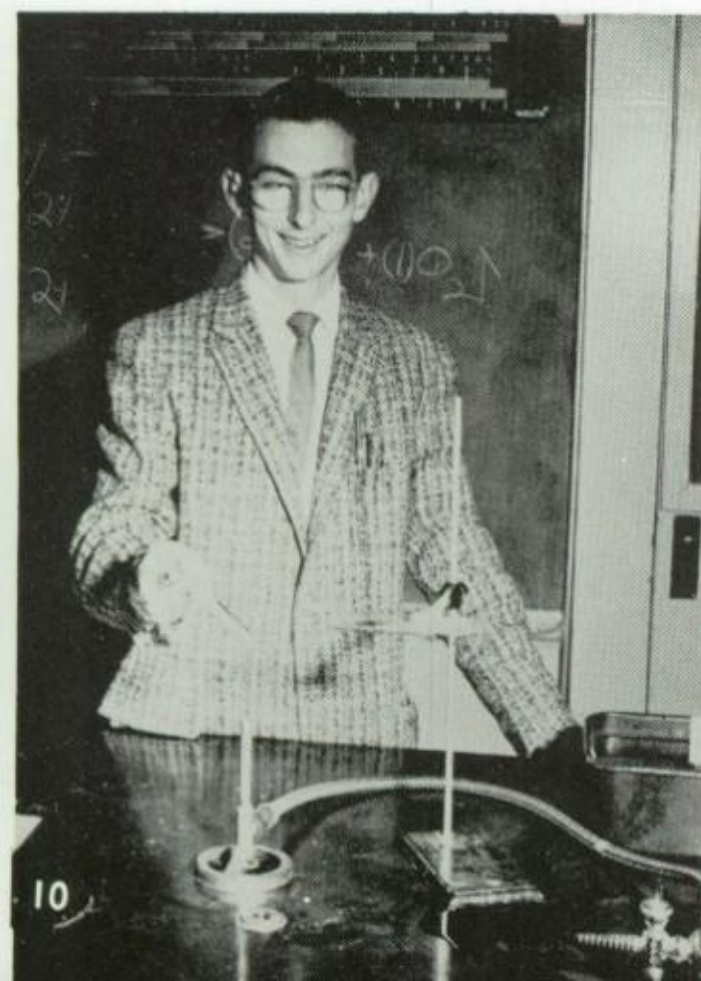

SCIENCE

Of the science courses offered to students, Biology is a required subject for all sophomores. Additional subjects students may elect to study are Chemistry, Physical Science, and Physics.

President Heads Student Body Officers

RICK CALLAHAN
President

Ashland High's student body officers were some of the busiest students in school. President Rick Callahan presided at student council meetings, coordinated student body activities, and served as master of ceremonies at many assemblies and programs. First vice president Bob Ford had charge of Inter-Club Council and assemblies. Secretary, Judy Eberhart kept the student body records and was in charge of the school activities calendar. Treasurer Joy Farenhurst kept the records of student body finances as well as finances of all school organizations. Chuck Calhoun, second vice president, was head of the evaluation committee. As yell queen, Sue Mittag was the leader of the rally squad.

The president, vice-presidents, secretary, and yell queen are elected by the student body in the spring. The faculty chooses an outstanding bookkeeping student to be treasurer.

Office Staff Keeps School Details

Under the supervision of Mrs. Jacqueline Lewis, school secretary, sophomore, junior and senior girls taking office practice learn how an office is run.

Office girls are usually seen dashing through the halls to pick up absence slips. They also answer the telephone and deliver messages.

Mrs. Martha Vandenburg and Mrs. Jacqueline Lewis distribute the teachers' mail each day in addition to keeping the school office running smoothly.

Office girls, Donna Revel, Courtney Bell, Martha Schwiebert, Sharon Oviatt, Marsha Winkler, Pat Nisle, Nola Nielson, and Jane Clark pause for a moment before hurrying to perform their various duties. Mrs. Lewis looks up from work on the school register.

Exchange Student Visits Ashland

YVONNE NICOLSON Pretoria, South Africa

This year, for the first time, Ashland High had a foreign exchange student sponsored by the local chapter of the American Field Service and the Rotary Club. Attending school here for her senior year was Yvonne Nicolson of the Republic of South Africa. Yvonne was very active in school affairs and was a valuable member of the student body. She participated in Pep Club, Debate, Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, Ski Club, IRL, and Student Council. Yvonne was also on the Rogue News staff and was Queen of the Junior-Senior Prom. During her sojourn in Ashland, Yvonne lived at the home of Archie C. Fries, Jr. Her visit to Oregon and the United States has helped both her and all who know her to understand and to be more tolerant of problems of the United States and South Africa.

Music

Band Travels to San Francisco

Throughout the school year the band provided music for many school functions. In the fall, the band played during the football game and performed musical routines at halftime. The Pep Band performed at all pep assemblies and basketball games. The band also traveled to San Francisco where they played at the Kansas-California game.

As president of Girls' League, Janet Miller was in charge of the 1961 Christmas Ball. This active senior is also secretary of Inter-club Council. Furthermore, scholastically, Janet tops her class.

A combination of scholastic and athletic ability makes Ken Stevenson an outstanding senior. He was president of National Honor Society and a member of the tennis, basketball, and cross country teams. Ken is also well known for his school spirit and hard work in class functions.

Joy Hinkson exhibits her school spirit through her position on the Varsity Rally Squad. This musically-talented girl plays double bass with the school orchestra and sings with the chorus. What's more, Joy is one of the honor students of the senior class.

Ron Kirsher is a soft-spoken, hard working student. In addition to his other activities, he is a member of the varsity football team.

Often seen hopping from car to car is our star football player, Ron Scholer. It is not that he needs the exercise, but this activity is necessary in his job as car hop at Stan's A&W. In addition to being on the football team, Ron is also on the wrestling squad.

Ashland High School's 1961 Homecoming Queen, Judy Eberhart, also has an outstanding scholastic record. For three years, Judy has been a leading member of the debate team. In her junior year, she was the winner of the United Nations Contest. Winning this contest entitled Judy to a trip to New York to visit the United Nations. Along with her other activities, this well-rounded student is secretary of the Ashland High Student Body.

Active Students Chosen as Mr. and Miss AHS

Senior class members chose Dan Lewis and Sue Mittag to be Mr. and Mrs. A. H. S. Dan was senior class president. As a senior, he received the Danforth Leadership Award and the Elks' Most Valuable Student Award. He was a student body vice-president in his freshman and junior years. He was president of his sophomore class. During his high school career Dan has participated in track and basketball.

Sue has been an active class member all four years. In her junior year she was a yell leader and a representative to Girls' State. As a senior, Sue was yell queen and a Junior-Senior Prom princess.

Students Receive Honors,

The Student Council voted this year to award citizenship awards to Rick Callahan, Lee Gettling, and Terry Skibby. Rick was given recognition for his work as student body president. Lee's award was based on her piano playing throughout her high school career. Terry was recognized for his work as photographer for this year's yearbook. All three had their names placed on a trophy.

Larry Pierce was honored as high point man in basketball. Gary Wallace was chosen as outstanding track man. Lynn Merriman received two basketball awards—Most Inspirational Player and top rebound man. He also was a representative at Boys' State in his junior year. Bob Ford was this year's Most Inspirational Football Player.

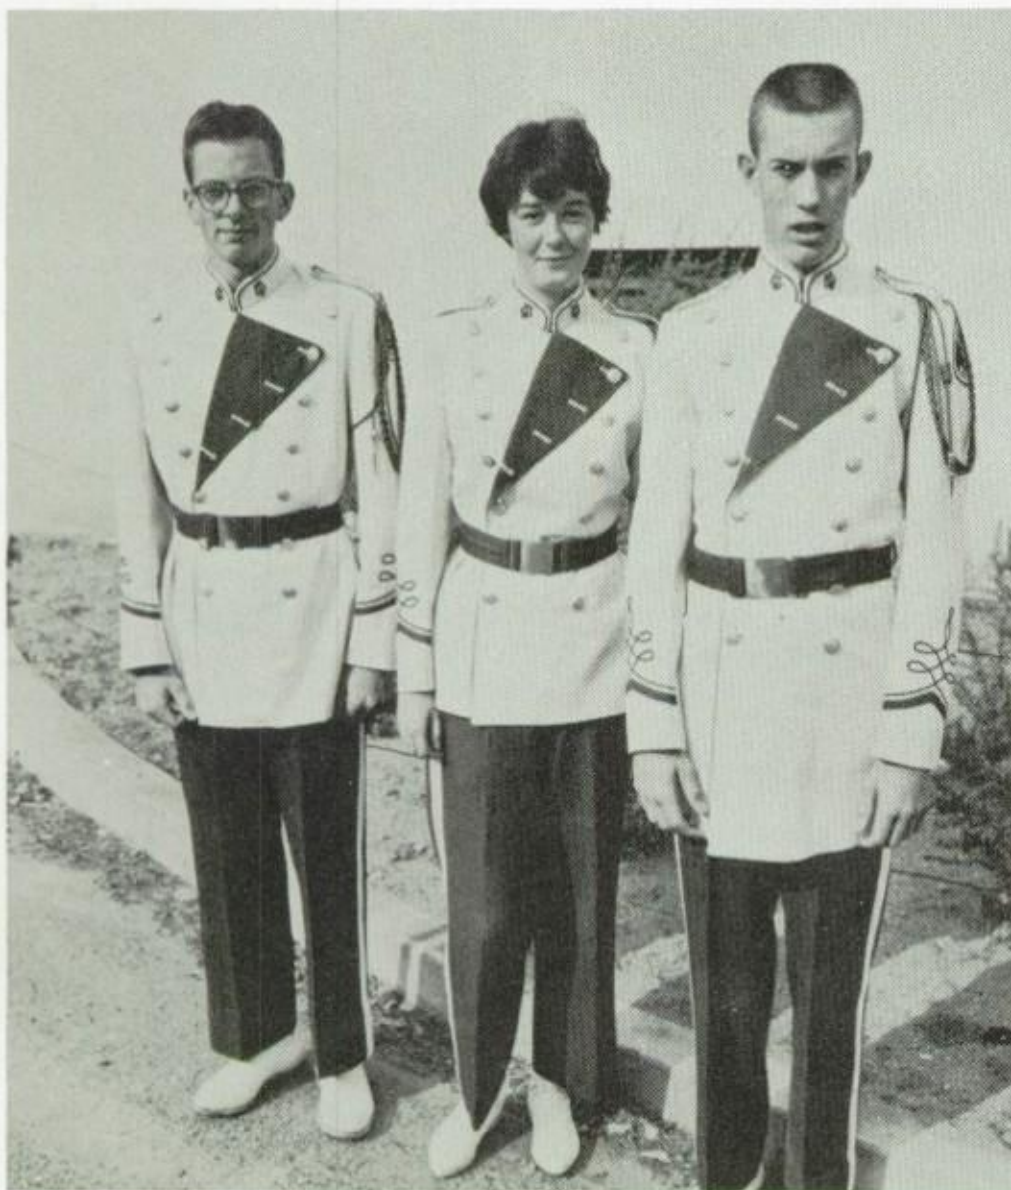

Mike Cotton, Carol Bjork, Craig Pennington, and Jim Lamb were chosen to compete for the chance to travel overseas this summer under the AMERICAN Field Service program for exchange students. At printing time, it was not known whether anyone would be chosen.

Students Honored in All Phases of School Life

Outstanding students chosen as winners in the Elks' Leadership contest were Joy Farenhurst; Dan Lewis; Peg Parsons; Rick Callahan, first place; Judy Eberhart, first place; and Galen Roberson. Joy was also this year's winner of the V.F.W. speech award, second in the district; she also won the Homemaker of America award in Ashland High. Judy Eberhart also won an Honors of Leadership Award at the University of Oregon and the D.A.R. award. Galen Roberson received an appointment to West Point Academy.

Virgil Osborn, Marcy Tretsvén, and Rick Hester performed this year with the Air Force Band in its concert in Medford. Rick was also chosen as Outstanding Band Member by the band.

Janet Miller and Sue Mittag represented Ashland at Girls' State in their junior year.

Janets Receive Top Honors

Janet Miller with a four point grade average was class valedictorian. Because of her scholarship, service, and leadership during her high school years, the faculty chose Janet the outstanding senior girl.

Janet Covington with a grade point of 3.952 was class salutatorian. Janet was the winner of the outstanding science student award presented annually by Bausch-Lomb.

Exercising 9s Basis of Physical Education

Sixth period girls are doing stretching exercises. Sue Conner and Linda Thomas lead the P.E. squads.

Here the girls do jumping jacks. Other exercises performed are the deep knee bends and touching toes during their daily exercises.

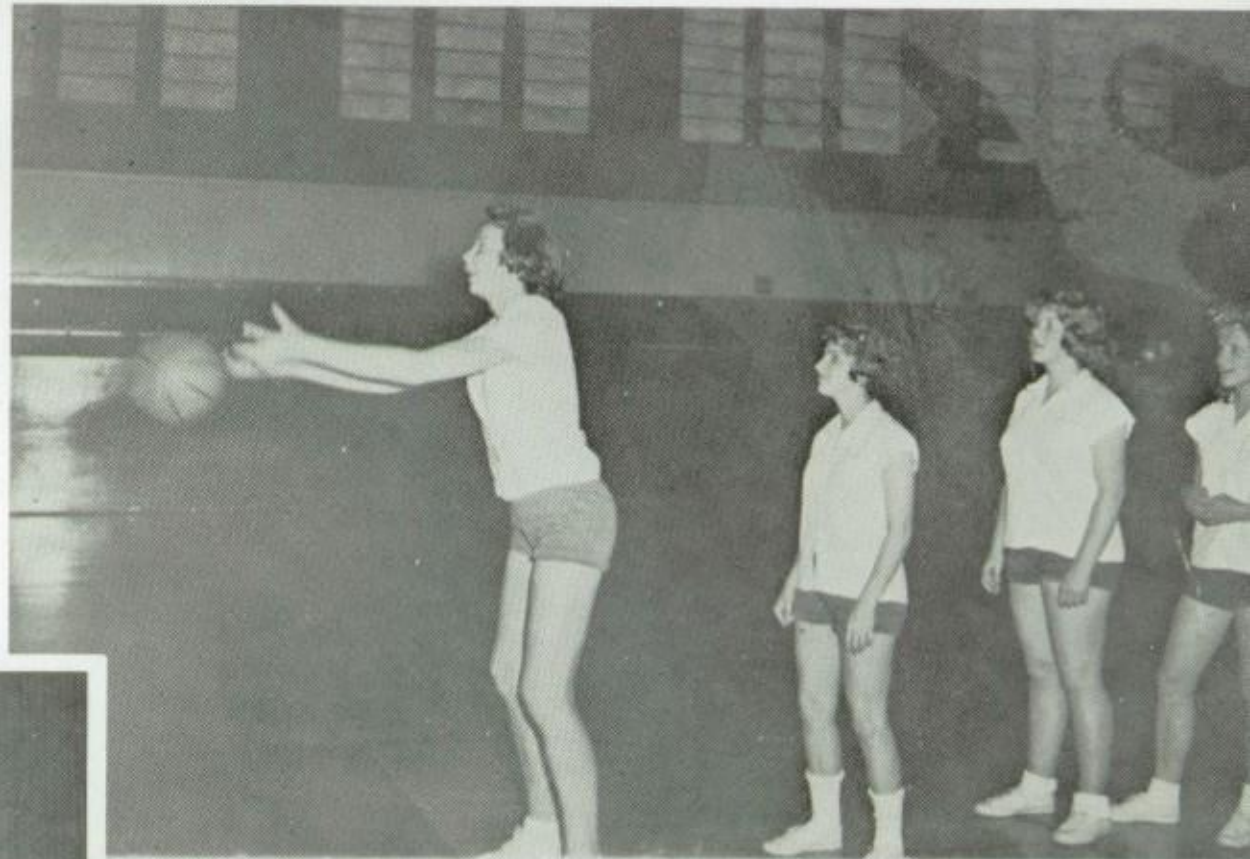

Girls Participate Actively

Jan Bobbett, Sharon Greenwade, Mary Linda Rhodes, Bev Hartford, Julie Knies, Bonnie Polk, Frances Pentland, Sharon Lantis, and Linda Weber are members of the champion girls' intramural basketball team.

Faye Chapman, Betty Davis, Kathy Tilford, and Sally Shively practice basketball skills. These skills develop coordination.

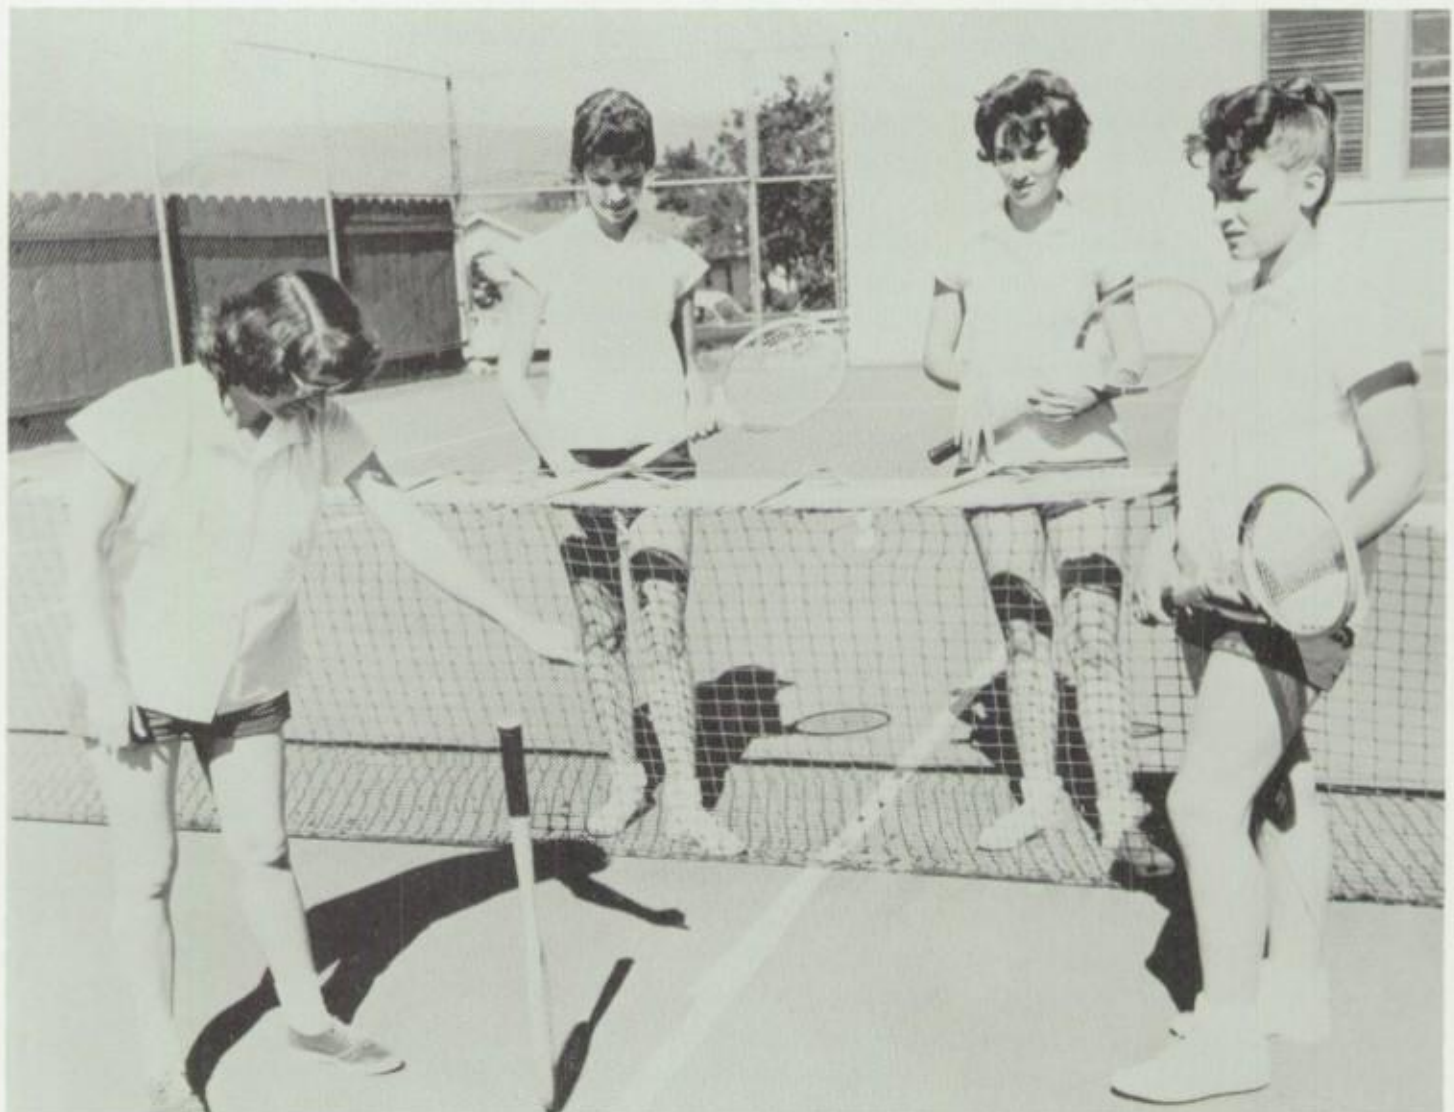

Sally Shively and Connie Felger use bat, mat and base to play bat-ball, a version of baseball, designed to be played inside.

Various Sports

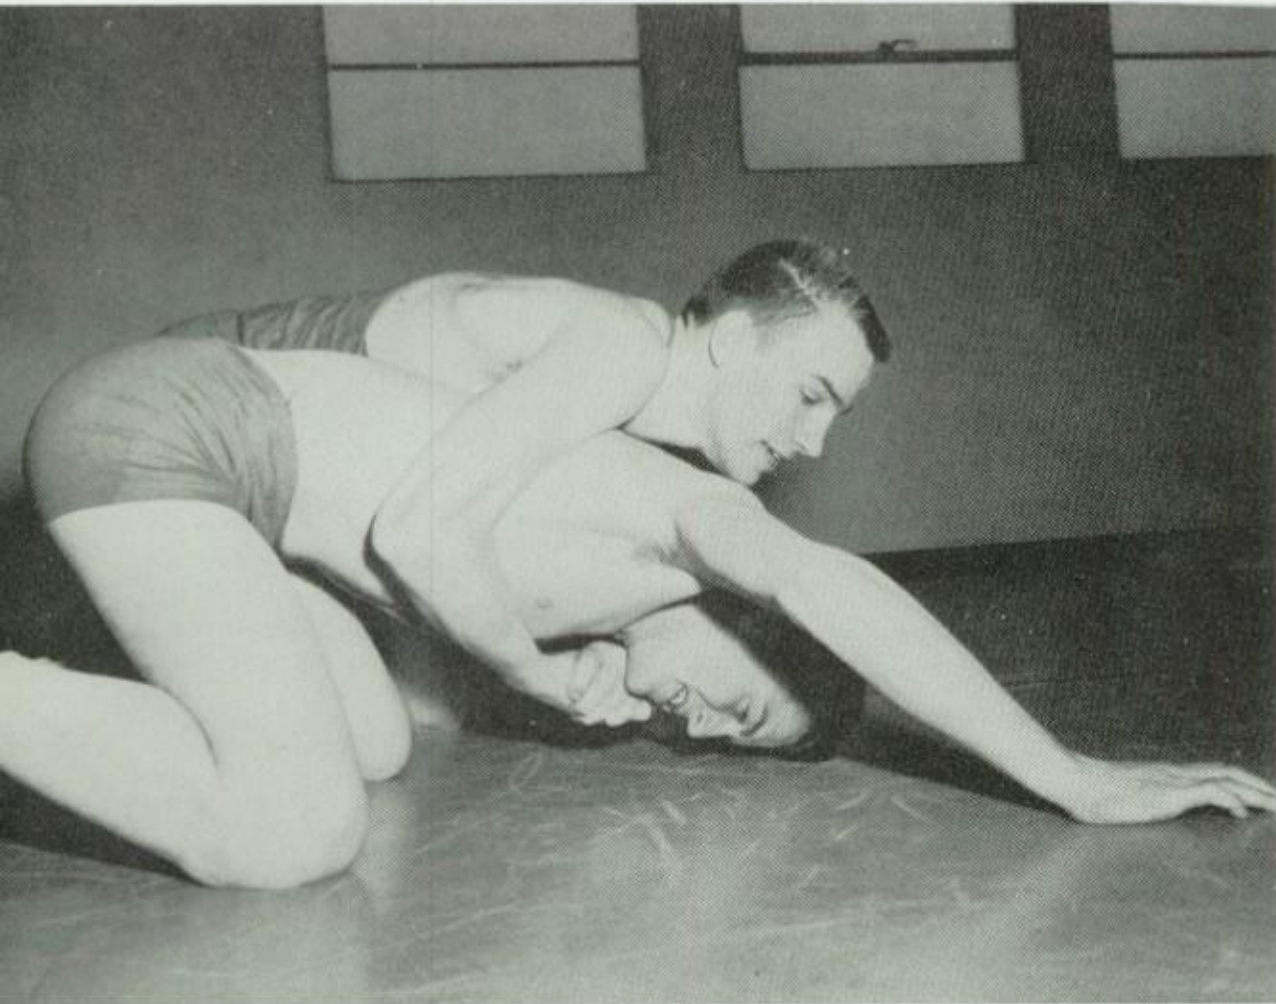

Linda Leigh, Nancy Mott, and Nancy Scribner demonstrate their newly acquired skill in archery. A new addition to the girls' physical education program this year is archery.

Aleta Marion, Nancy Dayton, Helen Colwell, and Ida May Wheat, wait to see who will serve. Tennis, one of the most popular activities, is a regular part of the girls' sports program.

Sports of All Sorts

These pictures illustrate sports that few people ever see. Wrestling and track attract fewer people than do baseball, basketball, and football. These sports, however, are just as important to a well-rounded athletic program for any school.

Ed Rhodes struggles to break the hold of Mike Blair.

The enthusiasm of yell leaders is typical of their spirit displayed in Friday Pep Assemblies. These assemblies boost the morale of football and basketball teams.

Danny Lewis, soaring over the bar, displays promising pole vault form.

Seniors Margie Moore, Yvonne Nicolson, Dale Lininger, Karen Felter, Delores Westgaard, and Judy Eberhart congregate to receive their 1962 yearbooks from Susan Rude and Sue Thompson and to autograph those of their friends.

The 1961 Rogue annuals were handed out by the staff at a party September 6 in the cafeteria. Students received their yearbooks at tables set up for each class. Free coke and orange drinks were supplied by the staff.

Most of the students remained in the cafeteria to look at the yearbooks and to sign each other's books. More than half of the students in school came to pick up their books and enjoy the party.

Informality prevailed at the yearbook party held in the cafeteria.

September 27 marked the date of a very successful Welcome Sophomore Dance sponsored by the junior class. A large group danced to records until 10 o'clock.

Both Grizzlies and Craterians enjoy one of the many after game dances.

October Brings Homecoming

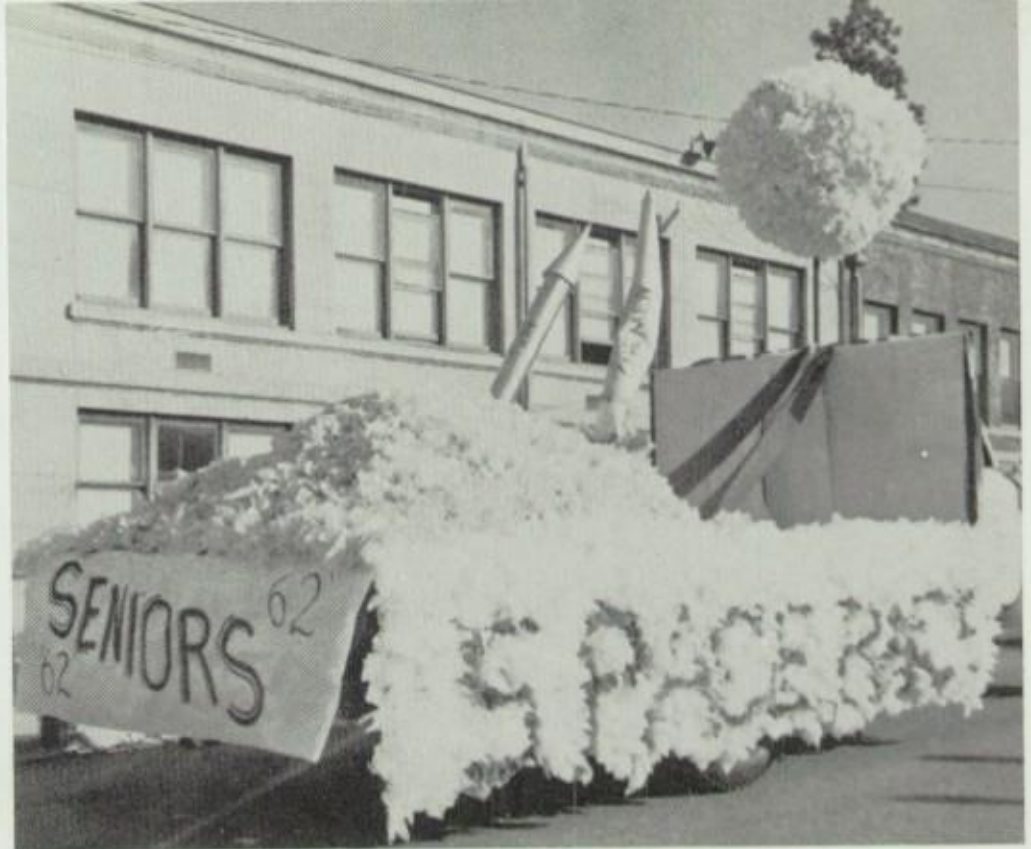

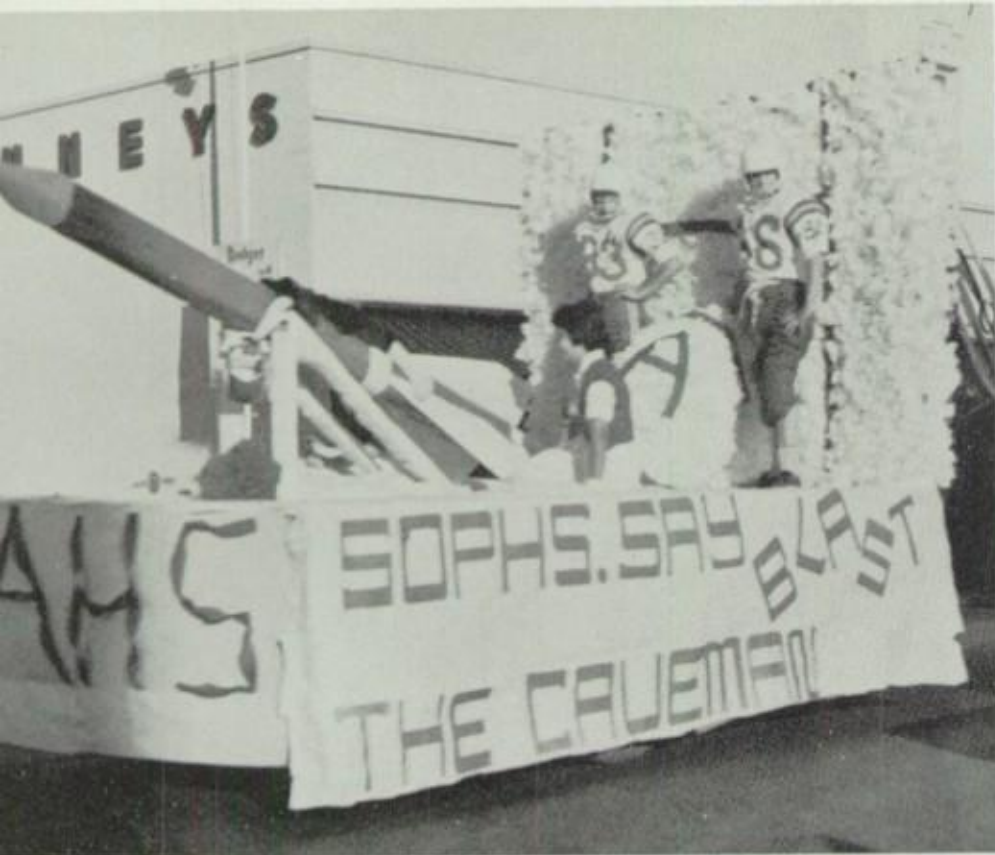

Gary Wallace, president of the Letterman's Club, crowns Judy Eberhart queen of the 1961 Homecoming.

Homecoming at Ashland this year was a huge success. Beginning the festivities was the sophomore bonfire on Thursday night. On Friday afternoon many enthusiastic students and colorful floats from each class and almost every school club took part in the Homecoming parade. On Friday evening came the event everyone had awaited with much anticipation, the game with Grants Pass. At half time, Judy Eberhart was crowned Homecoming Queen. Also during half-time the Pep Club and Yell Leaders spelled out the word Ashland in fire on the slope of the south end of the football field. Closing a week of much preparation and merrymaking was the Homecoming Dance at the Junior High, honoring Queen Judy Eberhart.

One of the yearly activities of the Pep Club and the Flag Girls is marching in the Homecoming parade.

Both the mixed chorus and orchestra entertained the public with their annual Christmas program. Decorations added much to the festive spirit of the holiday season. Both groups are under the direction of Mr. Windt.

Included in the program were special songs by the select girls' chorus which meets after school.

Festivities Close December.

The first semi-formal dance of the year was the Snow Ball, sponsored by the Girls' League and the Boys' League. This dance was held in the cafeteria of the junior high.

Karen Wood, winner of the "Prettiest Girl" contest was crowned at the Snow Ball.

Linda Thomas and Gary Campbell were one of the many couples who enjoyed the dance.

Gay Minstrel Show

For the first time at Ashland High, the faculty and students participated in a minstrel show. This was a fund-raising project for a new football scoreboard. Mr. Bernard Windt arranged and directed the colorful musical. The show consisted of a variety of songs, dances, and jokes.

The Flag Girls were among the many who participated in the show.

The men of the faculty proved to be the hit of the show. Assisted by several students, the teachers presented a song and dance to the tune of "Loveland." The second number included only the men faculty who sang "Sing along with Senor" to the tune of "Four Leaf Clover." Below are, from left to right: Mr. Eurick, Mr. Iba, Pat Woods, Terry Oakley, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Jobe, Mary Anne Woods, Mr. Maddox, Karen Felter, Mr. Barlow, Dana Smith, Mr. Lewis, and Helen Colwell.

9s Huge Success

Yell leaders Sharon O'Keefe, Martha Schwiebert, Delores Westgaard, Sue Mittag, Peg Parsons, Joy Hinkson, and Kay Moore sang and danced to "Carolina in the Morning"

"And I saw a peppermint twist!" said Ron Bemis as he demonstrated it to Gloria Collver, Karen Schopf, Janet Covington, Chuck Calhoun, Judy Benson, Rick Callahan, Marion Parker, Bob Ford, Angie Downey, Judy Eberhart, Rick Miller, Jack Mills, and Dave Squire.

"We Build the Senior Week began on Sunday with baccalaureate held in the high school gymnasium. On Monday and Tuesday mornings the seniors practiced for commencement exercises. Tuesday evening the seniors attended a banquet held at Ashland Junior High. Thursday evening class members graduated in the high school gym. Following graduation there was a reception at the Grange Hall. After-graduation activities included the serving of food at the Grange Hall, a show at the Varsity Theater, hayrides, and dancing at the grange. Finally the group again met for a breakfast at the Grange Hall.

A final gathering of the 1962 Ashland High Senior Class before graduation was the senior banquet held at Ashland Junior High Cafeteria.

Annual Staff Chronicles School Year

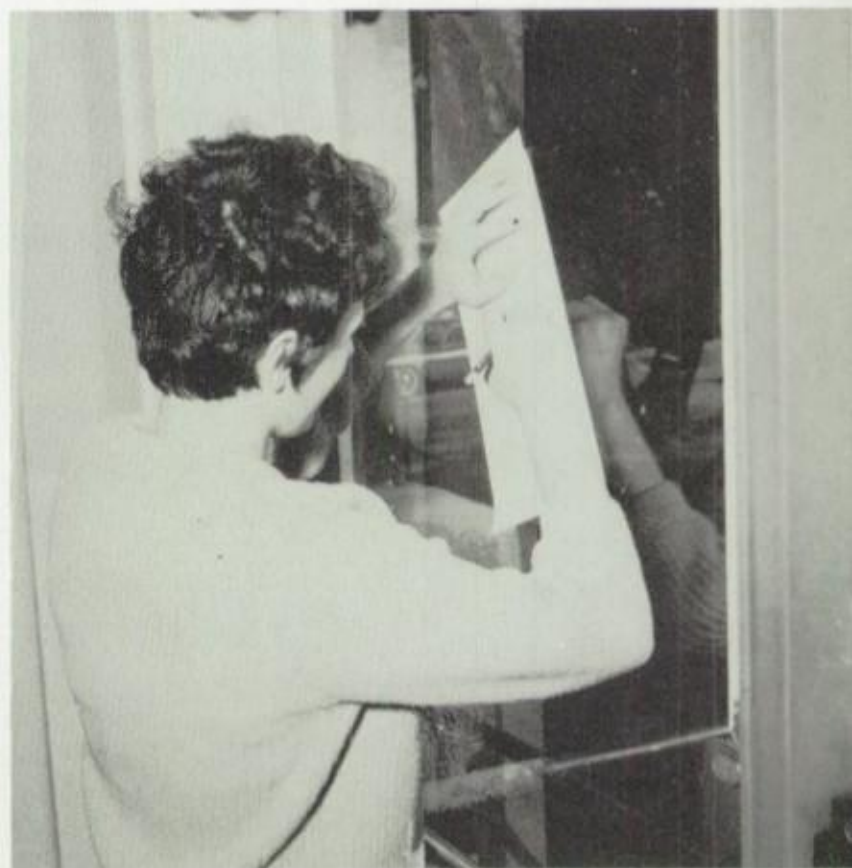

This year's annual staff, under the experienced and watchful eye of editor Margie Moore, strove to publish the best annual ever. Editor Marge, ably assisted by advertising manager Susan Rude and co-art editors Claudia Everett and Joy Hinkson, supervised the laying out of all pages. Linda Gray typed copy on the finished sheets. The copy, headlines, and cutlines for the annual are the result of a racking of brains of the entire staff. Rick Pierce, Boys' Sports Editor, set up sports pages.

The "keeper of the harem" Rick Pierce is surrounded by Sharyn Roderick, Diane Fieguth, Doree Woodell, and Mary Paul Workman. Standing are: Claudia Everett, Joy Hinkson, Susan Rude, Margie Moore, Linda Gray, Linda Wells and Elaine Meads.
